

2015 CMCFN Fall Mathematics & STEAM Conference

Saturday, October 10, 2015 8:15-3:30

½ day $ 35 full day $50

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Jo Boaler

- Keynoter Dr. Jo Boaler is a goldmine of resources; as a researcher and teacher at Stanford, author and math activist, she brings a wide range of offerings to the classroom teacher. Check out the website youcubed.org to find free resources for teachers and students. It will give you an inspired school year.

- Inexpensive and convenient: Most math conferences are far away and expensive, we are local and affordable. $35 for the ½ day, $50 full day.
- Change needs support: CCSS & STEAM are here and a lot of talented and motivated teachers will be gathering at the conf to support each other. Come and join us☺
- Grade level sessions target your students: learn it today and use it Monday.
- Bring a team and map next steps after lunch-leave with a plan!
- Technology Support: From one device to whole labs, we've got you covered.
- It's easy: Register with PayPal online at cmcfn.com or day-of with cash or check.
- Unit available
- It's catered! Breakfast for ½ day, and lunch for full day (over at 3:30)
